

Conference | Norwegian Women's Front

50 years of feminist resistance

October 19th 2023 | 09H30 – 12H30
Auditorium of Aberta University (UAb Saldanha)
Rua Almirante Barroso, n.º 38, 1000-013 Lisboa

Registration is required by 17/10 for in-person participation
Livestream available online
Event in English

PROMOTED BY:

PLATAFORMA PORTUGUESA
PARA OS DIREITOS
DAS MULHERES

CENTRO DE ESTUDOS DAS
MIGRAÇÕES E DAS
RELAÇÕES INTERCULTURAIS
UNIVERSIDADE ABERTA

In the framework
of the project:

The Portuguese Platform for Women's Rights (PpDM), the Center of Studies on Migrations and Intercultural Relations (CEMRI) and the Master's Degree in Women's Studies: Gender, Citizenship and Development (MEM-GCD) at the Aberta University (UAb) invite you to participate in the conference Norwegian Women's Front (Kvinnefronten): 50 years of feminist resistance. This event aims to recover the historical memory of the largest Norwegian radical feminist organization, to learn about its past and envision the future of its activity, reiterating the importance of exchanging experiences and knowledge between women's organizations, establishing frequent cooperation networks across borders, united by our common goal: the emancipation of all women and girls.

09H30 - 10H00: RECEPTION

10H00: OPENING

Isabel Ventura, coordinator of the Research Group: Women's Studies - Gender, Societies and Cultures at CEMRI/UAb

Rosana Albuquerque, coordinator of the Master's Degree in Women's Studies: Gender, Citizenship and Development (UAb)

Luísa Brito e Cunha, board member of the Portuguese Platform for Women's Rights (PpDM)

10H30: CONFERENCE

Agnete Strøm, founding member and international coordinator of the Women's Front between 1985 and 2018. Strøm joined the board of directors of the Coalition Against Trafficking in Women between 2010 and 2014, and most recently again in 2022. She is a treasurer and board member of SPACE Intl

Hilde Bjørnstad, board member and international coordinator of the Women's Front

Moderation by Diana Pinto, project officer at PpDM